

Gillian's Riding School Pony Club Open Children's Showing Show

Wednesday 20th February 2019
Gillian's Riding School, Clay hill, Enfield, EN29JL

10am - 5pm

(children can come along for a half day but will not be eligible for the tack and turn out competition)

In the morning all the children will learn the skills to compete in a child handler class. They will also be taught how to move around a handy pony obstacle course and how to prepare a pony for a show.

They will also be able to feed the ponies during the course of the day and learn about stable management and pony care.

There will be a prize for the Best Turned Out pony and rider in the afternoon This will be marked on the correct pony club attire or Show attire, hair should be tidy, gloves worn tack and pony clean etc

Class 1 Child Handler (2.30pm start)

Each child will be asked to trot their pony from the front to the rear. Also to be asked to turn the horse correctly and trot individually

Class 2 Handy Pony (4pm)

See how quickly you can negotiate the obstacle course on your pony all riders can have assistance!
Class will be split if sufficient entries.
